

GDPR Compliance Statement

The GDPR (General Data Protection Regulation) is an important piece of legislation that is designed to strengthen and unify data protection laws for all individuals within the European Union. The regulation becomes effective and enforceable on the 25th May 2018. Solintourist board is fully committed to achieving compliance with the REGULATION (EU) 2016/679 GDPR even prior to the regulation's effective date. as well as to protecting personal information which stipulates that the personal data given will not be passed on to third parties without client's consent and will be kept in a safe manner in accordance with the requirements of the Regulation as long as there is a need or no request for withdrawal of consent, deletion, restriction or correction of data.

Personal information

Solin tourist board will not collect any personal information about you (such as your name, address, telephone number, or email address), unless you voluntarily choose to provide them (eg in surveys, query, request etc.) or give your consent or unless otherwise provided by relevant laws and regulations for the protection of your personal data.

Personal data of children

When providing information society services directly to a child, processing of personal data of a child is lawful if the child is at least 16 years old. If a child below the age of 16 is such a treatment is lawful only if and to the extent that the parent has given or approved the parent's liability to the child. Solin tourist board invests reasonable efforts to check whether or not the custody of such a parent has been or has been approved by the holder of parental responsibility over the child, taking into account the available technology.

Lawfulness, fairness and transparency

We will process your personal information only on the basis of your legal obligation, your privacy or other legitimate grounds. Data relating to you will be collected, used, inspected or otherwise processed transparently, and the deadlines and data processing purposes, the processing manager's identity data, information on how you can access your data are publicly disclosed , the process of filing complaints and updating the data.

Purpose limitation

Your personal information will be collected for special, explicit and legitimate purposes and will not be processed in a manner that is inconsistent with these purposes. Data collected for one purpose will not be used for any other purpose or in a manner that is not in accordance with the approved purpose. For purposes of processing that is not carried out on the basis of a legal basis or contract we will ask you a special privilege.

Data minimisation

The personal information we collect is appropriate, relevant and limited to the purpose of processing. The processing manager and processor will not collect any personal information that is not required for processing purposes.

Accuracy and integrity of data

It is necessary that the personal information we collect and prepare is accurate and up-to-date and that is why we will take every reasonable measure to ensure that personal data that is incorrect, taking into account the purposes for which they are being processed, are deleted or removed without delay.

Storage limitation

The deadlines for keeping your personal data are determined by positive legal regulations or by your privacy to collect and process your personal information.

Integrity and confidentiality

In order to protect your personal information from accidental or unlawful destruction, loss or alteration, and from unauthorized disclosure or access, Solin tourist board uses technical and organizational security measures.

Questions and Comments

Solin tourist board will respond to reasonable requests for correction of your personal information and to correct, supplement or delete inaccuracies. If you have any questions or comments about the Privacy Policy, please contact us.

Director:

Jelena Stupalo

